Something A Little Different

This newsletter edition will be a little different. Only this front newsletter page will look the same. The other pages related to items that needed to be published but we just did not have the space or were not ready. This is a good time to provide the information. We have not received any job opportunities lately, have not received any interesting articles, and have been preparing for the AIHCe in San Diego. You will find the following in this edition.

Attachment 1: Welding Fume Article

The article "Welding Fume in the Workplace: Preventing Potential Health Problems Through Pro-Active Controls" by H. Shane Ashby was printed in the magazine Occupational Safety in April 2002.

This article was referenced by one of the speakers at the Welding Safety & Health Seminar sponsored by the NTS-AIHA. A request was made to reprint the article for the NTS-AIHA membership, however we had to wait until we received permission. We finally received permission to reprint on 5/3/2002.

The permission to reprint is for electronic attachment to email for NTS-AIHA members only. If you receive hardcopies or get a complimentary copy (other nearby AIHA local section officers) then this article will not be attached.

Attachment 2: NTSAIHA Handout 1

The AIHA has made available two 8 1/2 x 11 plexi pockets each available to the AIHA local sections. Because the AIHCe is coming to Dallas in 2003, AIHA asked that one of our pockets be used to advertise the AIHCe 2003.

Attachment 2 advertises the AIHCe coming to Dallas in 2003. This handout was printed double sided with one side (the one with photos) in color. 200 copies were made and will be available at the AIHCe in San Diego.

Attachment 3: NTSAIHA Handout 2

We also made 200 double-sided copies of this handout that shows off the NTS-AIHA. The front side (side with photos) was printed in color. These will also be available at the AIHCe in San Diego.

Thanks Volunteers

Also a big thanks to the NTS-AIHA volunteers who will be staffing the main AIHA booth in Hall A in San Diego. They will be promoting the AIHCe 2003 in Dallas. Thanks David Wilson, Stevan Pierce, Ed Sward, Bob Harris, Fred McGuigan, Ross Jones, Mike Donahue, Mike Collins, Dan McCaskill, Bill Vining and Don Hudnall.

I also send best wishes to Wendy McDowell whose horse is about to have surgery. Hope the surgery goes very well. ☺
