

AIHA-UMS hosts Nanotechnology TeleWeb Virtual Seminar

Date: Wednesday, September 14, 2005

Time: 1:00 to 3:30 pm (Registration begins at 12:30pm. Please be sure to arrive before 1:00 pm so you don't interrupt the teleweb)

Location: Hennepin County Southdale Library, 7001 York Avenue, Edina, Minnesota

Cost: Attendance is free to AIHA-UMS members; Certification processing fee is $25 (see below)

Noted expert Andrew Maynard will provide an overview of nanoscale technologies and their potential impact on health and safety in the workplace. Nanotechnology is based on the unique properties manifest in engineered structures, devices, and systems ranging from 1 to 100 nanometers in size. It is becoming apparent that the successful development of nanotechnology relies on proactively understanding and addressing its potential risk to human health and safety.

Get ready for the future of industrial hygiene!

Certification Information: This TeleWeb is pending ABIH approval for 0.5 IH Certification Maintenance (CM) Points, and has been awarded 0.25 Continuance of Certification (COCs), and 0.25 Continuing Education Units (CEUs). Individual participants "attending" the TeleWeb seeking CM points, CEUs, and COCs simply participate in the Live TeleWeb Virtual Seminar or review the CD of the TeleWeb, submit a final exam (with a processing fee of $25 per student), and complete a seminar evaluation, by the submission deadline. All Final Exam/ Certificate Request Forms must be received by November 16, 2005. Materials postmarked after this date will not be accepted or awarded CM Points, CEUs, or COCs.

Contact Deb Green, Secretary, to register for the course and receive handout materials - debgreen@att.net or 763-545-5510 x18.
