Kickoff dinner meeting for the fall season**

- When: Thursday, September 14, 2006
- Where: Squealer's Award Winning Barbeque
5515 West 86th Street
Indianapolis, IN
- Cost: Order from the menu
- Agenda: 6:00-7:00 PM - Dinner
7:00-8:00 PM - Technical presentation
- Speaker: Eric Coates, CIH, CSP
- Topic: Protecting Pregnant Employees

The purpose of this presentation is to look at the growing movement in society, state laws, federal rules, and the courts to view an embryo and fetus as an "unborn child" that has rights, including rights that extend to protection from workplace hazards. Since half of all babies are born to working mothers, we will be discussing what is necessary to have a reproductive health program. This overview will provide insights on how to effectively manage a workplace reproductive and developmental health programs to help protect employees, embryo/fetus, and the developing child from workplace hazards.
