Join us at AIHce 2009 for a special series on GLOBAL SUPPLY CHAINS AND
CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY
TUESDAY, JUNE 2, 2009

Four committees of the American Industrial Hygiene Association have joined together to plan this day-long series of Round Tables at the 2009 American Industrial Hygiene Conference and Exposition in Toronto. Our goal is to involve industrial hygienists in improving factory conditions in the developing world. A wide range of speakers will address the dangerous and unhealthy conditions that millions of workers face every day on the job, and offer ideas on how to eliminate sweatshops in global supply chains.

Round Table 222: 10:30 am Global Supply Chains and Social Responsibility: The Health and Safety Issues.	Round Table 229: 2:00 pm Global Supply Chains and Social Responsibility: Lessons Learned and IH Activism.
Q&A with morning keynote speaker Edward Quevedo Panelists: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - David Stangis (Campbell Soup Co.) - Garrett Brown (Maquiladora Health & Safety Support Network) - Janice Camp (University of Washington) - John Mulhausen (3M Inc.) 	Panelists: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Ashay Ajgaonkar (Applied Materials Inc.) - Lynda Yanz (Maquila Solidarity Network) - Maharshi Mehta (ISS-India) - Mark Katchen (Phylmar Group Inc.) - Scott Nova (Workers Rights Consortium) - Richard Hirsh (Stiefel Laboratories Inc.).
